

Paper trail leads to origami workshop

The ancient Japanese art of origami was on display for all to see at South Ribble.

A special workshop was held at the South Ribble Museum and Exhibition Centre in Leyland and visitors young and old were invited to fold paper in a wide variety of weird and wonderful things including frogs, birds and flowers.

Expert paper folder Stephen Watson is pictured demonstrating the art to youngsters Tony Walters and Stephene Walters.

Business as usual